When Unipol Gruppo Finanziario presents its 2007 Social Report in Perugia on Friday, 19 September there will be a public debate in which the following people will take part, together with UGF's General Manager, Carlo Cimbri: Renato Locchi, Mayor of Perugia, Luca Ferrucci, Professor of Economics and Business Management at the University of Perugia, Vincenzo Riommi, Planning Assessor for the Umbria Region, Adriano Garofoli, Chairman of Unioncamere Umbria, Guglielmo Epifani, Secretary General of CGIL (Confederazione Generale Italiana del Lavoro). The meeting will open with a welcome address by Paolo Bocci, Chairman of Unipol's Regional Council in Umbria.

The event will start at 3.30pm and will be held in the Hotel Giò Congress Centre, Via Ruggero D’Andreotto 19, Perugia.

Unipol Gruppo Finanziario - the holding and service company set up in September 2007 as a result of the reorganisation of the Unipol Group - will report to its stakeholders and to the entire community on its strategies and the results of its work in the field of corporate social responsibility and at the same time ask for suggestions as to how it can improve even further. UGF is convinced that it is of prime importance for businesses to combine the pursuit of financial success with that of social and environmental objectives, with a view to achieving sustainable development in the long term.
