its 2008 Social Report in Macerata

followed by presentation of 'The Keys to Smiles'
to the 'COOSS Marche' social cooperative's 'Porte aperte:
una possibilità per la convivenza' project

5pm, Monday 29 June 2009
Great Auditorium
University of Macerata
Piaggia dell'Università, 2

On the occasion of the presentation of Unipol Gruppo Finanziario's 2008 Social Report a public debate has been organised in Macerata on Monday 29 June with UGF's Commercial Deputy General Manager, Franco Ellena, the Dean of the Faculty of Economics, Antonella Paolini, Prof. Katia Giusepponi, lecturer in Programming and Control and the National Chair of consumers' association ADOC, Carlo Pileri. The meeting will be opened by Prof. Mauro Marconi, lecturer at the Faculty of Economics, Giorgio Meschini, Mayor of Macerata and Stefano Mastrovincenzo, Chair of Unipol's Regional Council for Marche.

Unipol Gruppo Finanziario will present its strategies, initiatives and the results of its work in the field of Corporate Social Responsibility to its stakeholders and the entire community and at the same time will ask for suggestions for further improvements.

This will be followed by the handing over of the Unipolis Foundation 'Keys to Smiles' grant to the project selected, the 'COOSS Marche' social cooperative's 'Porte aperte: una possibilità per la convivenza' (open doors: a way of living together) project, which encourages unaccompanied young foreigners to take advantage of their local community's sports, recreational and cultural services by getting them to use local amenities (swimming pools, cinemas, museums).
