

UNIPOL GROUP AND UNIPOLIS FOUNDATION SUPPORT THE INTERNAZIONALE FESTIVAL

Ferrara, 1 October 2020

The fourteenth edition of “Internazionale a Ferrara” will be held from tomorrow to Sunday, 4 October, a highly significant event where experts and scholars from many different countries will meet to discuss topical issues. This edition is generally attended by many young people and will be different this year, as participants will have to comply with anti-Covid-19 requirements when taking part in the various meetings.

In line with the Sustainable Development Goals steering the insurance company in its business activities, the Unipol Group and the Unipolis Foundation have also confirmed their support for the event in 2020.

The Unipolis Foundation in particular has cooperated and worked with the magazine Internazionale to organise a debate centred around the issue of inequality.

On Sunday, 4 October at 11 a.m. at the Municipal Theatre, “Il virus delle disuguaglianze” (the virus of inequality) event will be held, with the participation of Fabrizio Barca, economist and statistician, Alessia Mosca, academic, Pierluigi Stefanini, Unipol Group and Paola Vacchina, expert in training and education. Journalist Roberta Carlini will chair the debate on how young people, women and non-contract workers are those who could suffer the most significant consequences of the healthcare emergency.
