

UNIPOL GROUP JOINS CELEBRATIONS OF 1 MAY CONCERT

Bologna, 30 April 2018

The Unipol Group renews its support for the Labour Day Concert as main sponsor of the biggest free music event in Italy, organised by CGIL, Cisl and Uil to celebrate International Workers' Day. The 28th edition will be held, like every year, in Piazza di Porta San Giovanni in Laterano, Rome, with performances by famous Italian and international artists.

The event will be aired live by Rai 3 and RaiRadio2 from 3:00pm, hosted by an original duo: Ambra Angiolini, in her debut at the annual event, and Lodo Guenzi, frontman of the band Lo Stato Sociale.

The line up for the musical marathon includes: Max Gazzè, Lo Stato Sociale, Cosmo, Le Vibrazioni, I Ministri, The Zen Circus, Fatboy Slim, Francesca Michelin, Sfera Ebbasta, Carmen Consoli, Canova, Nitro, Calibro 35, Dardust feat. Joan Thiele, Frah Quintale, Wrongonyou and Willie Peyote.

Once again, this year's concert promises a wide range of genres, featuring both young musicians and long-time performers. Unipol has always sponsored partners that offer high quality events for free time, translating its daily commitment into a tangible sign of development and enrichment and remaining close to the people and the community by supporting initiatives with an important cultural and social value.
