

PRESS RELEASE

Fabio Colombera becomes new Deputy General Manager of Unipol Banca S.p.A.

Fabio Colombera has joined Unipol Banca S.p.A. in the post of Deputy General Manager (Business). Colombera joins us from the Banca Popolare di Vicenza where he held the position of Commercial Manager since 2007.

Colombera will work alongside the new General Manager of Unipol Banca, Luciano Colombini, who was also recently appointed Deputy General Manager (Banking) of Unipol Gruppo Finanziario and with whom he has worked in the past.

Renewal of Unipol Banca's top management forms part of the strategic plan to improve and enhance the synergies between banking and insurance business, which includes coordinating and guiding the work of all the other banking companies in the Group and ensuring that all the strategies and organisational and commercial initiatives that are aimed at achieving the Group's ambitious targets for growth in banking business are implemented to maximum effect.

Fabio Colombera was born in Venice in 1962 and boasts many years of banking experience. He began his career in 1983 with Credito Italiano, where he stayed until 1990 when he went to the Banca Popolare di Vicenza. He rose up the career ladder and in 2000 was appointed Manager of the Padua and Vicenza Areas.

In 2006 he was appointed Deputy General Manager of Banca Nuova for the Markets Division, in 2007 Chief Executive Officer of Prestinuova – a company operating in consumer credit – and, in December of the same year, Commercial Manager of the Banca Popolare di Vicenza.

Bologna, 22 January 2008.

Unipol Banca S.p.A.
www.unipolbanca.it

Contacts
Laura Ariotti
Communications
Unipol Banca
Tel. +39 051 354 4374
laura.ariotti@unipolbanca.it