ANTONIO MARRAS AT TRIENNALE DI MILANO: UNIPOL GROUP SPONSORS EXHIBITION DEDICATED TO THE DESIGNER

The Unipol Group includes among its founding values the promotion of our country and artistic excellence in Italy, and with its sponsorship of the exhibition dedicated to Antonio Marras "Nulla dies sine linea – Life, journals and notes of a restless man", on show from 22 October 2016 to 21 January 2017 at La Triennale di Milano, supports one of the most versatile figures in Italian fashion and around the world, a designer who through art has expressed and continues to express his home land: Sardinia.

Curated by Francesca Alfano Miglietti, this is the first exhibition bringing together works by Antonio Marras, a designer and artist who has always explored the boundaries in both fashion and art, often combining the two.

Published and unseen works, drawings and installations from the last twenty years will be exhibited in a 1,200 square metre space; the many design projects also include those created together with Carol Rama and Maria Lai, with a focus on the concept of fluid art, understood as contamination between different languages.

Support for the event is a part of the Unipol Group's Corporate Sponsorship Program and reaffirms a strategy aimed at supporting many initiatives across five main areas of action: culture and artistic heritage, the environment, scientific research and social utility, sports and entertainment.

In particular, with regard to culture, Unipol supports those working to make art accessible to the general public.

Because for the Unipol Group thinking of people's future also means thinking of what they love: art.
