UNIPOL GROUP PARTNER OF THE FESTIVAL OF GROWTH

Marisa Parmigiani, Unipol Sustainability Manager, will speak in Lucca on 10 June during the round table "Dialoghi sull'eccellenza del quotidiano" ("Dialogues on everyday excellence").

The Unipol Group supports the Festival of Growth, an important cultural event now in its second edition with the aim of creating a virtuous circle between the protagonists of growth and development, whether citizens or institutions, companies or creatives, students or professionals.

On 9 and 10 of June the festival will arrive in Lucca, in the historic setting of Palazzo Ducale, where a series of meetings will be held to discuss issues related to innovation, sustainability, education and creativity, thanks to the presence of leading figures from the business world, institutions, associations and the press.

In particular, on 10 June during the meeting "Dialogues on everyday excellence", Marisa Parmigiani, Unipol Sustainability Manager, will speak on behalf of the Group that has always responsibly assumed a social role, aware that the sustainability of a business model guarantees an equally sustainable social model. In fact, sustainability is a key part of the corporate strategies that define a new role for insurance as a private party that aims to develop more frequent and fruitful collaborations with the public sector and local communities to meet the many new local and global challenges.

With its Corporate Sponsorship Program, the Unipol Group wishes to always remain close to the people and the community, by supporting projects that embrace scientific research, social engagement, the environment, entertainment, art, sport and culture, such as the Festival of Growth.

For the Unipol Group, thinking of people's future also means thinking of what they love: culture.
